WAB Newsletter 6

Dear Sir or Madam,
Dear Readers,

the summer break is on the starting block. We are gathering our strength and are motivated to start full of energy into the second half of the year. After the successful Offshore Wind Energy in London, which is reported by this newsletter, the next events are taking place: The 9th Branchentag Windenergie NRW and the HUSUM Wind 2017. We are looking forward to the upcoming weeks, wish you an enjoyable reading (whether at the beach or in the office) and invite you to take a look into our brand new movie WINDFORCE 2017.

With kind regards,
your WAB Team

Offshore Wind Energy 2017, London: The Offshore Industry between Euphoria, Consolidation and Brexit

London is a city that never comes to rest. Every day, the media reports on both good and horrific events in the UK's capital. During the trade fair at the ExCel London exhibition centre, tension could be felt there and all around the city about the general election held on the last day of the fair.

New brochure by the initiative "Offshore Deutschlands Windstärke"

The Offshore-Wind-Industrie-Allianz (OWIA) together with the WAB e.V., the Arbeitsgemeinschaft Offshore-Windenergie e.V. (AGOW) and the Stiftung OFFSHORE-WINDENERGIE have published a new offshore-brochure. It provides a comprehensive overview of all important offshore-aspects such as costs, employment, the topic of sustainability, the energy industry and networks and offers an outlook for the offshore wind in the year 2050. The initiative is linked to the requirement of raising expansion goals for offshore-wind.

REVIEW

Offshore Wind Energy London 2017: Positive Feedback from Exhibitors and Visitors

The world's largest trade fair and conference for offshore wind energy took place in London from 6th to 8th of June

The Offshore Wind Energy recently announced that this year's conference was the most highly attended event over the last years. On top of this, the exhibition was a great success. At the joint stand of WAB, the representatives of the companies Northwest Assekuranzmakler GmbH & Co. KG, Fraunhofer IWES, Dr. Möller GmbH / IMS Nord, REETEC GmbH and Steelwind Nordenham GmbH, agreed that exciting, informative discussions and successful networking characterised the event. A highlight was the Niedersachsen / Bremen Offshore Wind Industry Lunch with Ralf Borchers, Ronny Meyer and Dr. Markus Tacke.

WAB Entry Seminar

18th and 19th of October 2017

+++ Register now +++

The introductory seminar is compact, entertaining and packed with examples taken from everyday practice. Providing an overview of the most significant topics of wind energy, the seminar is an ideal introduction to the industry. It is particularly suited to new employees, suppliers and all those seeking to gain a comprehensive and holistic overview of wind energy, e.g. administration staff.

The WAB social get-together will be held on the evening of the 18th of October. All participants are invited to attend.
