WAB Newsletter 8 | 2017

Dear Sir or Madam,
Dear Reader,

today, you receive the new WAB newsletter. We are looking forward to present you an exclusive interview with Sönke Tangermann, CEO of Greenpeace Energy, which we arranged in the context of the WAB Regulars' Table in August. In addition, you can register for the first Inn2POWER Newsletter as of now.

We wish you an enjoyable reading!

Kind Regards,
your WAB Team

NEWS

HUSUM Wind 2017 strengthens the need for action regarding the EEG

For more than 25 years the HUSUM Wind has been the meeting point for the wind power sector. Small and medium-sized enterprises make up a large part of over 650 exhibitors. Their energetic pioneering work has enabled the successful development of renewable energies and thus also of the wind energy industry. The central theme at HUSUM Wind, the international trade fair, were the results of the first round of tenders, in particular the two onshore wind energy tenders.

Cuxhaven Appell 2.0

On the same day, the economic and energy ministers and senators of the North German countries, the representatives of the offshore cities and associations jointly signed the Cuxhaven Appell 2.0. The central requirement is to lift the cover for the expansion of offshore wind energy. The Federal Government's costs for the limitation of the expansion are rejected by the first call for tenders.

Inn2POWER: Sign up for the first Newsletter

Inn2POWER is the first project in which regional clusters from the United Kingdom, Denmark, the Netherlands, Belgium and Germany, i.e. the WAB, will work closely together to link SME across borders to foster their involvement in innovative business collaboration.

The eleven project partners from the five leading offshore wind clusters in the North Sea Region are proud to present their first Inn2POWER Newsletter to you.

REPORT FROM BERLIN

Roland Wolf is the new Public Relation Manager of the Offshore-Wind-Industrie-Allianz (OWIA)

Roland Wolf is the new Public Relation Manager of the OWIA. The 39-year-old Bavarian was most recently active as an energy advisor. He took over the position of Urs Wahl, who joined the German Engineering Federation (VDMA) after six years of successful work. The task of the Public Relation Manager includes the political communication of the North German Wind Power Networks concerning offshore-related issues in Berlin.

WAB in Action

The results of the first two calls for tenders pushed the sector. For this reason, the WAB has worked together with the Lower Saxony Ministry of Economic Affairs, Labor and Transport, among others a position paper, which has found its way into the green parliamentary group. An open letter and a resolution initiated by Katrin Göring-Eckardt and Dr. Anton Hofreiter is the result.

EVENTS

WAB-Event

WAB Entry Seminar

18th and 19th of October 2017

+++ Register now +++

The introductory seminar is compact, entertaining and packed with examples taken from everyday practice. Providing an overview of the most significant topics of wind energy, the seminar is an ideal introduction to the industry. It is particularly suited to new employees, suppliers and all those seeking to gain a comprehensive and holistic overview of wind energy, e.g. administration staff.

The WAB regular's table will be held on the evening of the 18th of October. All participants are invited to attend.
