WAB Newsletter 1 | 2019

Dear Sir or Madam,
Dear Readers,

we wish you a successful year 2019 and look forward to accompanying you through the new year!

Today, we will start with our Regulars' Table in Oldenburg. Heli Service International from Emden will give a lecture on the topic "Offshore Wind Farm Logistic Deploying Helicopters". Spontaneous visitors are very welcome. You should also make a note of our Regulars' Table on 13th of March. We are expecting the top candidates for the citizen's election of Bremen.

Further highlights: Visit of a top-class trade delegation from the Netherlands on 6th of March and of course the WINDFORCE Baltic Sea on 13 and 14 February in Gdansk. The registration deadline is the 7th of February.

Kind regards, your WAB Team

Press Conference about the expansion of offshore wind in 2018

On 21st of January, the most important industry associations presented the current figures for offshore wind energy in Germany for the year 2018. Their core message is: "2019 must be the year of progress in energy policy. Offshore wind energy is of central importance for the achievement of climate protection targets and secures value creation in Germany as an industrial player". They added: "Power production from offshore wind increased by around 8 percent in 2018 while costs declined, thus contributing to a stable, low-cost and clean electricity supply. With this balance and the correct and urgently needed initiative by Minister Altmaier to expand the grid, the preconditions are met for a faster expansion", said the industry representatives of BWE, BWO, Stiftung OFFSHORE-WINDENERGIE, VDMA Power Systems and WAB.
